“Artful Giving” Exhibit to Open at Suffolk Center

Artisans from across Virginia will be showcased in an exhibit opening Nov. 9 at the Suffolk Center for Cultural Arts. “Artful Giving” will highlight artists of the Artisans Center of Virginia as well as other regional artists.

Works to be featured in the exhibit are glass, pottery, fiber, mixed media, painting, and jewelry and all of the art is for sale and will make great gifts for the upcoming holiday season.

The Artisans Center of Virginia (ACV) assists artists in promoting their local arts culture. ACV has developed 30 artisan trails representing 46 counties and 12 cities across the Commonwealth. The trails comprise artisan craft studios, agri-artisan gardens and farms, wineries and breweries, galleries and craft-related venues, eclectic shops, and historical and cultural points of interest. Arts and craft festivals, exhibitions, farm market activities and cultural holiday events are listed on the ACV calendar on their website.

The opening reception for “Artful Giving” is Thursday, Nov. 9 from 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. and is free and open to the public. For more information, call 923-0003.
