The Embers Bring Their Classic Sound to Suffolk Center Performance

A band who has become synonymous with “beach music” in the Carolinas, Virginia, and the mid-Atlantic will present a special Christmas performance at the Suffolk Center for Cultural Arts on Friday, Dec. 1 at 7:00 p.m.

The Embers boast numerous albums and single releases that span decades. In December, 2007 and 2008, the group was honored to travel throughout South Korea to perform their Christmas special ‘Christmas with The Embers’ on American military bases for America’s troops.

Lead singer and frontman for The Embers is Craig Woolard, who has won many accolades through the years. He has appeared on stage with groups such as The Four Tops, The Temptations, the Beach Boys, plus backed up artists like Percy Sledge, The Blues Brothers, Eddie Cornelius, and Alabama. For the past 10 years he has co-hosted the acclaimed Carolina Beach Music Awards (CAMMYS), and in 2011 was inducted into the CBMA Hall of Fame.

Having been inducted into the South Carolina Rhythm and Blues Hall of Fame and most recently the South Carolina Beach Music Hall of Fame, The Embers are honored to carry the moniker of North Carolina’s Official Ambassadors of Music. They have a rigorous tour schedule boasting an average of 25 shows a year.

Tickets are $25 and $30 and can be ordered online at www.suffolkcenter.org or by calling 923-0003 and following the prompt for the Box Office.
