Glassblowing Workshop to Feature Noted Artist

A glassblowing workshop featuring Richmond-based glass artist Neil Duman will be held Saturday, Nov. 19 at the Suffolk Center for Cultural Arts.

Participants will create their own glass piece with hands-on supervision from Duman, who has 40 years experience in the art. Six time slots are available between 11:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. during which two participants per hour will work with the artist.

Neil Duman studied at the Maryland Institute of Fine Arts in Baltimore and at Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond graduating in both metal and glass.

Over the past 40 years Neil has conducted numerous workshops and demonstrations and created works for corporations such as Mattel, Carmax, Remax Canada as well as for many individuals. His pieces have been featured in national, international and regional shows.

Cost for the workshop is $50. Call the Suffolk Center at 757-923-0003 to register.

More information and registration is available at www.suffolkcenter.org or by calling 757-923-0003.
