Enjoy Extended Shopping Hours at Holiday Open House

The holiday spirit will be in full swing during Jester's Gallery Shop's Holiday Open House Nov. 10, 11 and 12. Shoppers will enjoy free gift wrapping, door prizes, light refreshments, and a great James Farmer gift package.

The shop, located on the first floor of the Suffolk Center for Cultural Arts, will be open from 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. all three days.

A special feature of the event is a free ornament with each purchase. Handcrafted by Jodi Rusho, whose company is Glass with a Past, the ornaments are made with recycled glass and each one is different. There is a limit of one ornament per person per day.

Jester's co-managers Sandy Hart and Pat Eelman have put together a wonderful gift package: a ticket to hear James Farmer, noted author on gardening, interior design, and Southern lifestyle, at the Suffolk Center on January 26, 2017 paired with one of his best-selling books.

'A Time to Plant' is for garden lovers from the novice dirt dabbler to the seasoned gardener. In 'A Time to Cook', Farmer explores the notion that "food is our direct link to our past." Southern food goes way beyond biscuits, cornbread and fried chicken. 'Dinner on the Grounds', 'A Time to Celebrate', and 'Sip and Savor' round out the James Farmer collection at Jester's.

And if all this weren't enough, the shop will offer buy one item and get a second item of equal or lesser value for a 25% discount.

Jester's features paintings, glasswork, pottery, jewelry and more all handcrafted by American artists, most of whom are from Virginia and North Carolina.
