Concerts, theater productions are in November and December Lineup at Suffolk Center for Cultural Arts

An Eagles tribute band, musical theater, a hit movie, and a Christmas concert await visitors to the Suffolk Center for Cultural Arts in the next two months.

Eagles' fans will hear all their favorite songs at the 7 Bridges Band: The Ultimate Eagles Experience concert on Nov. 12 at 8:00 p.m. Country-tinged early favorites, like 'Lying Eyes', 'Best of My Love', and 'Desperado' mesh well with the later period rock songs like 'Life in the Fast Lane', 'Heartache Tonight', and 'Hotel California' which are timeless classics audiences love to hear.

The story of "The Wright Brothers – Those Daring Young Men and Their Flying Machines" takes place in and around the Wright Brothers' bicycle shop in Dayton, Ohio and at Kitty Hawk, North Carolina. Follow Wilber and Orville Wright through their seven years of disappointments and triumphs. The performance is Friday, Dec. 2 at 12:00 noon.

Fans of Chet Atkins and Floyd Cramer will enjoy the vocal and instrumental music of Atkins' niece Meagan Taylor and Cramer's grandson Jason Coleman in A Tennessee Christmas on Saturday, Dec. 3 at 8:00 p.m.

"Finding Dory" follows the tale of Dory, the wide-eyed blue tang fish who came to fame in the movie "Finding Nemo". The free movie is presented in partnership with Suffolk Tourism department on Saturday Dec. 10 at 2:00 p.m.

The story of lovable Uncle Wiggily will unfold when Children's Theatre of Hampton Roads presents "Uncle Wiggily's Christmas Carol" on Saturday, Dec. 17 at 11:00 a.m.

For ticket information, call the Suffolk Center at 923-2900 or go online to www.suffolkcenter.org.
