Musical Production Highlights the Wright Brothers

The story of Wilbur and Orville Wright will come to life in a musical biography at the Suffolk Center for Cultural Arts on Friday, Dec. 2 at 12:00 noon.

“The Wright Brothers: Those Daring Young Men and Their Flying Machine”, especially appropriate for young audiences, opens in the Dayton, Ohio bicycle shop of Orville and Wilbur Wright. As usual, instead of fixing bikes they are working on new, unheard of inventions. After reading about inventors in Europe working on the development of human flight, they start to think about the possibilities, despite the dangers involved.

With courage, ingenuity and determination they make their dream of flying come true.

Ticket prices are $15. Contact the box office at 923-2900 or online at www.suffolkcenter.org.
