Blues Brothers Bash Fundraiser: On a Mission For the Arts

Just like Jake and Elwood Blues, the Suffolk Center for the Arts is on a mission: a mission for the arts.

“Blues Brothers Bash” is the theme for this year’s Suffolk Center’s annual fundraiser set for Saturday, Feb. 25 from 6:00 to 11:00 p.m.

While Jake and Elwood, stars of the hit comedy Blues Brothers movie, were on a mission to save the Catholic orphanage where they were raised, the Suffolk Center’s event will use the funds raised to support their arts education and community outreach programs.

The Blues Brothers Soul Band, a full rhythm and blues tribute band straight out of Weston, FL will provide the entertainment. The Soul Food Café and Cheatin’ Heart Bar will be open to guests. The event also features both a live and silent auction.

“Blues Brothers Casual” attire is suggested. Costumes in keeping with the theme of the movie are encouraged but not required.

Tickets are $125 per person. Space is limited and open to guests 21 years and older. To purchase a ticket call 923-0003 or go online to www.suffolkcenter.org.
