The Best of Rock and Roll is at The Suffolk Center

The music of Elvis, Buddy Holly, Roy Orbison, the Everly Brothers and Ricky Nelson will shake the rafters at the Suffolk Center for Cultural Arts on Saturday, March 18 at 8:00 p.m.

In this theatrical performance, the singers portray the founding fathers of rock and roll presented in the guise of a live 1958 radio broadcast on fictitious WJKS (Where Joy Kills Sorrow). In addition to music from the 50s, The Jubilee includes 1950s period advertisements, skits, and lots of laughs.

Performers include The Titans of Teen Town, Craig Evans and Brad Tucker; The Ashlandaires, Brian Sulser, bass, vocals, and emcee, George Garrett drums, and Jim Wark, guitar and vocals. B. J. Kocen, and Aimee Richardson Sulser round out the cast in various roles.

The performance is sponsored by the Edward Jones Office of Margie Wiley and Mike Duman Auto Sales.

For tickets call 923- 2900 or go to www.suffolkcenter.org.
